DISASTER RELIEF is the purpose of the Alabama Baptist Convention trailer which was a familiar and welcome sight to Elba residents in 1990. The Dorsey Trailers product returned home to serve as it was designed ... feeding disaster victims. Recently the trailer was back in Elba at C & C Trailers, where Doyle Cassiday and his staff were refurbishing it. Last week the repairs were stopped and the trailer was enroute to Louisiana and more disaster relief. Loading the equipment and commodities back into the trailer was hastened with the help of the City of Elba. Mayor Fred Moore accompanied John Taylor, James Baldwin and Collie Haggler to C&C where the trailer was quickly reloaded and left for the disaster area to assist the victims in their survival efforts.

BRAINSTORMS

A group of Elba citizens left Sunday night to donate their time helping victims of Andrew in Louisiana. These folks know first hand the benefits of helping hands in times of disaster. An effort was made by Clipper Editor Marvin McIlwain to picture them at work Tuesday but in the confusion, he found where they were sleeping at night, but not them. The information was that they were fifty miles further down the road - somewhere. We can report they did arrive and were dispatched to where some folks did need help. We salute this group of Elba citizens.

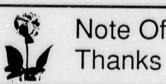

Those of us who can't go the the disaster areas and lend our physical help, can do something. Various reputable organizations are accepting donations to help the storm victims and we can assist in this area. Find one of the groups you are comfortable with and make some sort of donation - remember a lot of folks helped us in 1990.

We have some more good words for Elba citizens. One day last week a lady, from out of town, was in our office on business. Her husband was with her and while waiting walked around Elba and spent some money, which was good. The most important thing however was his comments, on returning to our office, about Elba folks being friendly. He noted that each person he met smiled and spoke. We would like for everyone in the world to get that response when they visit Elba!

THE PRESSBOX

By Ricky Mularz

School employees had a three-day workshop last week, which meant that we had to get Melissa and Melanie up early in the morning and get them to their Aunt's for the day. Melanie's springs are wound up and ready to go the second she hits the floor, but Melissa takes a couple of hours to get cranked up and kind of moves in slow motion. With school starting in just five days, maybe we had better hold a few more dress rehearsals just to be sure we can make it by the last bell.

The 1992 college football season will pick up the pace this weekend with several good games all across the nation. The Florida Gators get a shaky nod to win the Eastern Division. Replacing four offensive linemen isn't easy, but Florida has the talent to do it, nd with Shane Matthews at quarterback, it may not be all that hard. If the line grows up quickly, this could be a special Florida squad. Georgia's young defensive front could keep the Dogs from surprising the Gators, while Tennessee should round out the top three. Over in the Western Divi sion, Alabama surprised everyone last season by winning 11 games, and even though it won't win 11 this year, it will win the West. The Tide could be challenged; however, it is a perennial strong road team and that should spell some big wins. Coming in second will be Mississippi, with Auburn getting the nod here to finish third.

Other conference powers should be Florida State and Clemson in the ACC, Washington and UCLA in the PAC 10, Michigan and Iowa in the BIG 10, Nebraska and Colorado in the BIG 8, Texas A & M and Texas in the SOUTHWEST and Miami and Syracuse in the BIG EAST. This week's picks:

Miami 24 Iowa 20 Alabama 23 Vanderbilt 10 Auburn 20 Ole Miss 16
